What do you like about Exwick Tennis Club ? : It is a very friendly, inclusive club. It has a very diverse membership base, different ages and backgrounds which makes it very interesting.

What are our strengths as a club ?: Steve Ashton's warmth, energy and enthusiasm quite literally brightens up the place. It's a relatively small club and Steve makes great effort checking in how everyone is doing and introducing new members. There is a great variety of coaching sessions, club nights, league matches and social events.

Would you recommend us to your friends and family ?: Absolutely

What else would you like to say about the Club ?: You won't regret joining!
